

There are 12 Federal Reserve Banks. Each is responsible for one of the 12 Federal Reserve districts. The Reserve Banks were set up around the country to ensure that all the regional voices are represented at the policymaking table. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York is responsible for the Second District. Do you live in the Second District?

Can you identify the areas located in the Second District? Use the map to fill in the blanks.

ACROSS

- 1 Opened in 1825, this famous waterway aided trade and transportation from the Great Lakes to the Hudson River. _____
- 4 New Yorkers may be famous for sharp tongues but the state is also famous for this sharp cheese, commonly made upstate: _____.
- 6 Within the Second District, Fairfield County is the only county in the state of _____ in the Second District.
- 7 Because of the stock exchange and numerous banks headquartered there, New York City is sometimes called the _____ capital of the United States.
- 8 The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is located in this town: _____.
- 9 The economy of this three-island U.S. territory is primarily dependent on tourism: _____.
- 10 When headed to this popular tourist region in New Jersey, locals sometimes say they are going “down the _____.”

DOWN

- 2 This upstate New York natural wonder, _____, is located in the United States and Canada and is known as a vacation spot for honeymooners.
- 3 The Second District includes this bilingual U.S. territory: _____. (Hint: it’s an island)
- 5 This New Jersey township was named after the famous inventor, Thomas _____. (Hint: lightbulb)