

ENDA Roundtable:
*Building
 Community/University
 Partnerships
 that Work*

Sponsored by:

Office of Regional and Community Affairs, Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Department of City & Regional Planning, Cornell University, Mary Ann Shaw Center for Public and Community Service at Syracuse University

In Partnership with:

Cornell Cooperative Extension & CARDI, Cornell University, Eastside Neighbors in Partnership, Department of Community Development and Office of Economic Development, City of Syracuse.

Office of Regional and Community Affairs
 Federal Reserve Bank of New York
 33 Liberty Street
 New York, NY 10045

*Working together towards a more vibrant, equitable, and sustainable
 New York*

Economic Development
 Network for Action

Roundtable Meeting

June 3, 2005
 8:15 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Sheraton Syracuse University
 Hotel & Conference Center
 Syracuse, NY

About EDNA

EDNA is a new membership association comprised of community-based development organizations, municipal and county governments, regional intermediaries and lenders, charitable foundations, regional business organizations, and colleges and universities committed to a community-based approach to regional economic development that promotes vibrant, sustainable, and equitable communities in Upstate New York.

EDNA's goals and objectives include the following:

- To build a broad-based Network to exchange knowledge, share resources, and determine the best practices in economic and regional development.
- To generate Research designed to promote and expand employment and business opportunities and community development efforts in the region's most distressed rural and urban communities.
- To Advocate for regional, state, and federal policies that advance the economic and community development efforts initiated by local public and private entities.

Visit www.ednanys.org for more information.

Program Agenda

8:15 Registration & Breakfast

8:45 Welcome & Overview

Carolyn Lee, Office of Regional & Community Affairs, Federal Reserve Bank of NY

9:00 Building Community/University Partnerships that Work

David Perry, Director of the Great Cities Institute & Professor of Urban Planning and Policy, Univ. of Illinois at Chicago

10:30 Responses and Q & A

Ken Reardon, Chair, Department of City and Regional Planning, Cornell University

11:00 Summary of Existing EDNA Resources

Jim Dessauer, East Side Neighbors in Partnership (ENIP)

12:30 Lunch & Learn

Stored Value Cards: A Method of Payment for Unbanked and Underserved Customers

Sherrie Rhine, Senior Economist, Office of Regional & Community Affairs, Federal Reserve Bank of NY

2:00 Working Groups in Support of EDNA Goals

3:00 Summary Session of EDNA Priorities & Action Items

Tim Cullenen, CARDI & Jim Dessauer, ENIP

4:00 Adjourn

Registration

To RSVP, please fax this form to (212) 720-7841 or e-mail carolyn.lee@ny.frb.org.
Registration deadline: May 30, 2005

Name _____

Title _____

Organization _____

Address _____

Town/City _____

State _____ Zip _____

Phone: (_____) _____

Fax: (_____) _____

E-mail: _____

Dietary preference:

Vegetarian No Preference

Conference Location:

Sheraton Syracuse University
Hotel & Conference Center
801 University Avenue, Syracuse, NY 13210

For more information, contact:

Carolyn Lee at (212) 720-5349 or e-mail
carolyn.lee@ny.frb.org
www.ny.frb.org/regional/commdev.html

Free roundtable